

Villa St. Arsenios

St Arsenios is a stunning property, comprising three individual villas that can be booked either separately or jointly. It is situated in the area of Agni village in Corfu, a peaceful and idyllic location, home to authentic traditional scenery, pristine nature, pebbled beaches and rocky bays where boats can be moored as well as small traditional taverns. And this spectacular landscape is overlooked by each villa in the estate, offering a glorious view to the endlessly blue horizon as far as the eye can see. Each house also includes finely furnished terraces and a private swimming pool each. The area, located just 30km away from Corfu town, is ideal if you are looking to savor serene, peaceful moments. Come explore the caves and gorgeous coasts of this part of Corfu, try out the local cuisine and enjoy Agni's laid-back lifestyle and luscious natural scenery. And as it is built in a privileged location, St Arsenios will offer you exactly the kind of environment you expect to enhance this unforgettable experience; ravishing views, a wide range of amenities and massive outdoor space to delight in the golden sunlight, a quick and refreshing swim in the pool or even a walk to the nearby beach.

MAIN VILLA

- This chic stone villa, comprising 3 bedrooms with en suite bathrooms, stands proudly on the rocky hill surface and features private paths down to the sea. It is a spacious and stylish property of great elegance that comes with a large, private infinity pool, hardwood terraces and sitting areas offering gorgeous views to the Ionian sea as well as a large covered bar.

OLD HOUSE

- Breezy, luminous and refined, this stone villa includes 3 bedrooms with en suite bathrooms and delightful outdoor spaces. It features large terraces offering striking views of the sea, an infinity swimming pool and a whirlpool bath. The house is surrounded by a garden, furnished with an outdoor dining table, chairs, sun bed and BBQ facilities.

LIGHT HOUSE

- This elegant 80sq m villa is located on top of the hill, on the highest point of the estate and features 2 double bedrooms with private bathrooms. This unique placement offers a breathtaking panoramic view of the Ionian Sea and the town of Corfu. Enjoy it sitting back and relaxing in the villa's garden, one of the private outdoor areas or in the swimming pool. Or just go for a swim at the beach; it is only a short drive, or a mere 15 minute walk away.
